Community Integration Highlight Back to School Bash- Salvation Army

Every year before school starts we join the Salvation Army Back to School Bash volunteers. We help open up all the packages so they are easier for the children to grab as they go thru the line to receive their items for school. Back to school can be a rough time for parents to be able to provide all the necessary items their child needs to help them be prepared for the school year. We love to help them out whenever we can. This year we even helped with a donation drive to collect school supplies!

TIE DYE

We made tie dye bags to bring our lunch and other items into work! Everyones turned out different and cool!
